- Promoting women's rights, child protection, and human dignity through sustainable programs and awareness campaigns.
- Guided by compassion and a strong ethical foundation, FMWO remains committed to creating lasting change and transforming lives through collective effort, accountability, and service to humanity.

FAIRY Home Sukkur was established in May 2018

Farzana Fairy Home (A Project of Farzana Welfare Organization (Regd) Non-Governmental Organization), the first and only of its kind in Pakistan, founded in May 2018, undertook to give shelter and sustenance to the orphans, helpless girls and women of whole the country, under the chairpersonship and under the aegis of advocate Farzana Khoso, hailing from tribal area of District Kashmore, an area differing each and every social and human freedom, an area notorious for the extortion and exploitation of the girls and women.

Being rebel to the inhuman and merciless treatment with the girls and the women in this area, Advocate Farzana Khoso, pursuing her respected father Dr. Abdul Razaque Khoso and Late Abdul Sattar Eedhi, embarked on social services and organized Farzana Welfare Association cherishing the dreams to shelter and support the helpless and hapless girls and women of our area. As an advocate she always remained on front in supporting the destitute and the deprived legally and financially yet to continue her mission successively, more efficiently and more competently, she established an exceptional and outstanding institution namely Fairy Home in Sukkur, for the complete shelter and sustenance of the girls and women and made wonders and made history in the world of selfless services of society.

Honorable Farzana Khoso has a vision to establish such Fairy Homes all over Sindh in immediate future so that no helpless girl and woman of the society may feel herself alone and be exploited, suppressed or subjugated.
